Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part.	Stress in all forms impact adversely on the quality of life, concern about academic stress and its effects on student's performance have been a concern in academia. There has been no definition for stress that everyone accepts. It is difficult to measure stress if there's no agreement on the definition, because what is stressful for one person may be pleasurable or have little effect on others and we all react to stress differently, it is therefore important for the scientific community to do a comprehensive research on stress	Noted
