Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)	I think the title is quite suitable	Thanks for the comments
Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.	The abstract should display the concentration values of the measured chemicals, such as pH, nitrogen, organic matter, ammonia (NH ₃), and nitrite (NO ₃)	Thanks for the comments Revised
Is the manuscript scientifically, correct? Please write here.	I think the manuscript is scientific enough, just add some corrections, namely: 1. The abstract should display the concentration values of the measured chemicals, such as pH, nitrogen, organic matter, ammonia (NH ₃), and nitrite (NO ₃) 2. In the results and discussion, it is necessary to display a reference table issued by a government agency or recognized by the government, then compared with the results of measuring the substrate in the form of compounds or organic substances to determine whether the suitability with the substrate is still good and has not been contaminated. 3. In the images, there are lines and their line equations, it is necessary to analyze the line equations and the meaning of the numbers.	Noted and added. Thanks for the comments
Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.	I think the references are sufficient and recent
Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	Yes, English is good enough	Thanks for the comments
