Review Form 3

Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?	✓ There are numerous grammatical errors and awkward phrasing. The article would benefit from professional proofreading. Example: "Nutritional benefits of sweet potato bladed in Rasmalai were exploited in the present study..." → should be "The nutritional benefits of sweet potato blended into Rasmalai were explored in this study..." The author duty is to revise and amend those grammar and related punctuation.
Optional/Generalcomments	✓ The Paper Introduction part/Methodology part need minimum of a single image describing that Raw Material or Blending Products. ✓ While sensory scores suggest consumer acceptance, a discussion on potential marketability would add value. ✓ Would consumers be willing to pay extra for this enhanced Rasmalai? ✓ Figures & Tables Formatting Issues: o The flowchart for sweet potato pulp preparation is informative but could be more visually clear. As Author Improve such a way. o Tables could be formatted more neatly and modern way for better readability. ✓ Why 10% sweet potato pulp the optimal level? to balance between sweetness, texture, or some other factors? o Did you consider running a proximate analysis to quantify fiber, vitamins, or antioxidant content? o Since sweet potato adds natural sweetness, could sugar levels be further reduced without affecting acceptability? ✓ Were consumer trials conducted beyond the laboratory section? o Testing with a broader audience (e.g., different age groups) would provide better insights into commercial viability.
