PART 1: Comments

|   | Reviewer's commentArtificial Intelligence (AI) generated or assisted review comments are strictly prohibited during peer review.  | Author's Feedback (Please correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here) |

| Please write a few sentences regarding the importance of this manuscript for the scientific community. A minimum of 3-4 sentences may be required for this part. | This manuscript is a valuable contribution to the scientific community as it addresses the critical intersection of Identity and Access Management (IAM) and cybersecurity compliance in global enterprises. By exploring innovative IAM approaches and their integration with emerging technologies like AI, machine learning, and blockchain, the paper provides actionable insights for organizations navigating complex regulatory landscapes. The inclusion of real-world case studies and practical solutions enhances its relevance, offering a comprehensive guide for both researchers and practitioners aiming to strengthen cybersecurity frameworks. Overall, this work bridges the gap between theoretical research and practical implementation, making it a significant resource for advancing cybersecurity practices in an increasingly digital world. |  |
| Is the title of the article suitable? (If not please suggest an alternative title)   | Yes  |  |
| Is the abstract of the article comprehensive? Do you suggest the addition (or deletion) of some points in this section? Please write your suggestions here.      | The abstract could briefly mention the role of emerging technologies such as Artificial Intelligence (AI), Machine Learning (ML), and blockchain in shaping the future of IAM. This would provide a forward-looking perspective and highlight the potential for these technologies to revolutionize cybersecurity compliance.   |  |
| Is the manuscript scientifically, correct? Please write here.  | Yes   |  |
| Are the references sufficient and recent? If you have suggestions of additional references, please mention them in the review form.                              | Sufficient  |  |
| Is the language/English quality of the article suitable for scholarly communications?  | The article occasionally relies on general phrases such as "this paper explores" and "this paper aims to provide" without deeply engaging with the specific methodology or results. In scholarly work, it's better to provide a more direct connection between research questions, methodologies, and outcomes. For instance, instead of simply stating what the paper aims to do, it would be more effective to highlight the specific contributions the paper makes to the field and how those insights are grounded in empirical data or case studies.   |  |
| Optional/General comments  |   |  |

PART 2:

|   | Reviewer's comment  | Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here) |
|---|--|---|
| Are there ethical issues in this manuscript? | (If yes, Kindly please write down the ethical issues here in details) |   |
